B. Read the following story then answer the following questions. (10%)

In our neighborhood, there are many people who help us do many things when we need them. Police officers, mail carriers, mechanics, doctors, fire fighters, teachers, bus drivers and cashiers are some of them. They provide us “service”. Without them, we would be in trouble.

I want to be a police officer when I grow up. I want to be a police officer because I like to help good people and put bad people in jail. I will wear my cool and handsome police uniform at work. I’ll help people who are in trouble every day. I will direct the traffic, catch bad people or help people who are in trouble in my job. To be a police officer, I have to have a strong body, a healthy and smart brain so I can solve problems and catch those bad guys.

This job is sometimes dangerous, but if I am careful enough I think it’ll be fine. If we are afraid of the danger in the job of being a police officer, who is going to help people to solve the problems?
