It was a beautiful spring morning. The Muppets were going to have a picnic in the forest. Betty Lou prepared the food for every one of them. She had sandwiches, chocolate, candies, pears, apples and orange juice.

Bert drove his jeep with Ernie to pick up Betty Lou, Grover and the Count. Ernie brought his camera with him. Grover had a net and the Count had a pen and a notebook.

One hour later they were in the forest. There were many cute, friendly animals in the forest. Many animals live on the branches, in the tree holes, in the nests in the trees. The rabbits make their homes under the ground.

They had a great picnic after watching the animals. Ernie took many pictures of the chipmunks on the branches and a nest of robins in the nest. Grover caught some tiny butterflies and guess what did the Count do? Well, he counted how many rabbits there were under the ground then wrote it down on his notebook. It was a nice trip and they hoped to visit the forest again soon.
