It was Grover's birthday last Sunday. His friends wanted to give him a surprise. Grover and his family invited Betty Lou, Ernie, Bert and Cookie Monster to have a picnic with them to the forest. They all told Grover that they were busy and couldn't go with Grover and his family. Grover was sad that none of his friends was going to celebrate his birthday with him.

In the morning, Grover and his family all got very early. Grover's father drove Grover's mother, sister and him to the forest. On the way to the forest Grover saw many animals. There were two squirrels playing on the branch, on a higher branch, a chipmunk was eating an acorn, an owl was sleeping in the tree hole, too. A nest of rabbits were under the ground. Grover felt happy now because he could touch the cute animals and smell the trees and flowers.

They were surprised to see Betty Lou, Ernie, Bert and Cookie Monster when they arrived at the picnic spot. They all shouted "Happy Birthday, Grover!" Grover liked this surprise very much. They had fun playing and eating in the forest.

Answer the questions.
