It's a hot and sunny day. It is a nice day to go to the beach. The Young Family and their friends are at the beach. They are wearing their bathing suits.

The women are lying on their towels by the beach. The men are barbecuing under the trees. Some children are playing in the water, and others are playing beach ball on the sand.

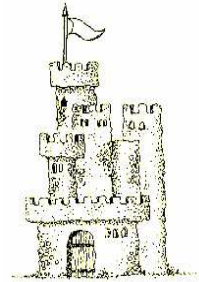

Little Sara and Little Billy are not playing with the children. They are playing by themselves on the sand. They are making a sand castle.

“Do you two need my help?” says Mr. Young.

“No, thank you. We like to make a sand castle by ourselves.”

Then, all the children see Little Sara and Little Billy’s sand castle. They think it is very nice. They think it is fun to make a sand castle.

“Can we help, please?” say the children.

“O.K.,” say Little Sara and Little Billy.
